Item 5 of the provisional agenda
Consideration of reports submitted by States parties
under article 40 of the Covenant

List of issues in relation to the second periodic report of Kyrgyzstan

Addendum

Replies of Kyrgyzstan to the list of issues*
[17 January 2014]

1. Regarding the fact that the Constitution of the Kyrgyz Republic has supreme legal force and direct effect, the provisions of international human rights treaties have direct effect and priority over other norms of international treaties (Article 6 of the Constitution). Based on this, the courts have the right to apply the provisions of international treaties in rendering a decision on a particular case.

2. However, it is not possible to provide examples of the application of the provisions of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights by the courts as the maintenance of statistic is not practised.

3. Currently, the provisions of the Covenant are not used in the materials of the proceedings and decisions of the courts.

4. It should be noted that the Government Decree on the establishment of the Human Rights Coordination Council under the Government of the Kyrgyz Republic, a very important document for the further promotion of human rights in Kyrgyzstan, was adopted in November 2013. The Council was composed of the heads of all state agencies involved in human rights issues. The Council, chaired by the Vice Prime Minister of the Kyrgyz Republic, is endowed with broad powers to enforce Kyrgyzstan to implement international obligations in the field of human rights.

* The present document is being issued without formal editing.
5. The work on the development of the draft Law on Amendments to the Law on the Ombudsman has been initiated by the Ombudsman from the second half of 2013. The project has received initial positive expert assessment of compliance with the Paris Principles from the UN agencies. A meeting of the expert group that gathered together the representatives of international organizations and working groups of the Ombudsman of the Kyrgyz Republic was held on November 19 for the final discussion of the draft law on the compliance with international obligations. The Office of the Ombudsman held a public hearing on November 29 attended by MPs, representatives of government agencies, international and civil communities. The draft law will be submitted to the Human Rights, Constitutional Legislation and State Structure Committee of the Parliament of the Kyrgyz Republic. To date, the Ombudsman institute was awarded the status B.

7. In accordance with the Law of the Kyrgyz Republic “On State Guarantees of Equal Rights and Equal Opportunities for Men and Women”, as well as the effective implementation of public policies to achieve gender equality in the Kyrgyz Republic, the Government Decree No. 443 of the Kyrgyz Republic as of June 27, 2012 approved:
   - National Strategy of the Kyrgyz Republic for achieving gender equality by 2020;

8. This is the first long-term document in Kyrgyzstan in the area of gender equality. The strategy focuses on the introduction of legal and institutional changes designed to eliminate gender discrimination and is a logical extension of the state gender policy implemented within 20 years of independence of the Kyrgyz Republic. Consultations with representatives of civil society at the national and local levels took place within the framework of the development of the strategy.

9. The first step in implementing this strategy is the mid-term National Action Plan on Gender Equality (NAP-3) for 2012-2014. A distinctive feature of the strategy and the NPA-3 is the development of indicators for monitoring and allocation of a special budget for the implementation of the activities envisaged.

10. The main priorities of the Strategy are: women’s economic empowerment, creation of functional education, eliminating gender discrimination and increasing women’s access to justice, promoting gender parity in decision-making and promotion of women’s political participation.

11. M. Kudryashov was detained by the Bishkek Department of State service of financial police on October 30, 2010, in the course of search operations, namely under the check purchase conducted near the cafe “Pioneer”, located on the east side of Karalaev Street in Bishkek, when Kudryashov was selling DVD discs in the amount of 99 pieces to M. 90. One of the important steps in this regard was the development and adoption of the National Strategy for Sustainable Development of the Kyrgyz Republic for 2013-2017, which enshrined the main areas for further development of the judicial system of the Kyrgyz Republic.

91. The consultative body – the Council for Judicial Reform- was established to coordinate measures on priority areas of the judicial reform held in the country, ensure concerted government actions to implement the main developments in this area.

92. The measures provided in the aforementioned National Strategy are currently being implemented within the framework of the Presidential Decree as of August 8, 2012 “On measures to improve justice in the Kyrgyz Republic” and the Action Plan to reform the judicial system of the Kyrgyz Republic for 2012-2014”, approved by the Board on Judicial Reform under the President of the Kyrgyz Republic dated October 12, 2012 under No. 2, that highlighted the main recommendations, including proposals on the most pressing issues and problems of the judicial system and legal proceedings, valuable analysis and specific proposals on a number of priority areas of judicial reform in the near future.

93. Six working groups were created from among the judges, lawyers, civil society representatives, academics, representatives of various government agencies within the framework of implementing the measures set forth in the Decree of the President aimed at improving the procedural rules of law and the administration of justice, including the Criminal Code, the Criminal Procedure Code and the Penitentiary Code of the Kyrgyz Republic.

94. The issue of the approval of the State program of development of the judicial system for 2013 2017 has been developing now. A functional analysis of the judicial branch was held in collaboration with international partners with further development of specific proposals for improving the activity of courts and judges for the purpose of approval of this program in 2012.

95. The Supreme Court of the Kyrgyz Republic with the support of project partners from USAID/IDLO Judicial Strengthening Program initiated creation of the Internet portal www.sot.kg that successfully operates now.

96. The Supreme Court of the Kyrgyz Republic and local courts in Bishkek has been maintaining the Internet resource since April 2013. Preparatory works to connect the courts of Chui and Osh oblasts to the Internet portal are in progress.
97. An information resource www.sot.kg operates now. Besides the information resource www.sot.kg, work on introduction of AV recording of the hearings in courtrooms is in progress. At present, this system is installed in the Supreme Court of the Kyrgyz Republic, and in some local courts. Audio-video recording of the hearings will help to ensure the integrity and objectivity of hearings and will discipline the participants of the proceedings as well as the judges.

98. A new Internet web site of the Supreme Court of the Kyrgyz Republic www.jogorku.sot.kg has been operating from 2012. This Internet resource provides detailed information about the activities of the courts of the Kyrgyz Republic and the ongoing judicial reform in the country. This web-site also provides the possibility for submission of online applications and complaints for citizens, legal entities and individuals that also have a positive impact on improving the transparency and openness of the courts.

99. The Judicial Department, as a body responsible for the material and technical provision of local courts and enforcement of judgments, along with the Judicial Training Center have been separated from the executive branch and passed to the control of the judicial branch.

100. In order to reduce torture and ill-treatment, MIA have developed measures to reform the internal affairs of the Kyrgyz Republic, approved by the Decree of Government No. 220 as of April 30, 2013 aimed to create an effective system of law enforcement, public safety, enjoying the confidence of the society and create necessary conditions for the formation of a highly qualified staff of the internal affairs bodies that meet the requirements of professional ethics.

101. The Regulation on performing active duty of soldiers and officers of the internal affairs bodies was approved in June, according to which a number of changes and additions have been introduced. One of the most effective innovations: in practice, in most cases initiated against police officers accused of committing a crime, the prosecution was stopped on the basis of reconciliation, due to changes in the circumstances, etc., which did not prevent further performance of active duty by the staff in the Department of Internal Affairs. Currently, police officers being charged, inter alia, in torture, are dismissed from the internal affairs even in the reconciliation of the parties. Employees can continue to serve only if the prosecution is dismissed for lack of legal components of crime, evidence of a crime, either for failure of evidence.

102. Memorandum of Cooperation in the field of protection of human rights and freedoms was reached in June 2012 between the Ombudsman, the General Prosecutor’s Office, Ministry of Internal Affairs, Ministry of Health, Ministry of Justice, State Service of Execution of Punishments, OSCE and 12 public organizations whose activities are aimed at protecting the rights and freedoms. Under the given Memorandum, the parties are entitled to joint visits to places of detention across the country, without prior notice; in order to identify problems related to the violation of human rights in these institutions, in particular the practice of torture. The terms of the Memorandum were extended until the end of 2013. Plans of the partners within the framework of the new Memorandum of Cooperation for 2014 were discussed in December 2014.

103. In general, 30 criminal cases were initiated by the investigators of the Prosecutor’s Office of the Republic in 2012 according to the para. 3 (with the use of physical violence or threat of violence) Part 2 (the same offense committed) of the Article 305 (committing of actions by an official that are clearly beyond his powers and that led to violation of the rights and legitimate interests of persons, in the absence of elements of crime under Article 305-1 of the Criminal Code, or legal persons or legally protected interests of society or the state).
104. The investigators of the Prosecutor’s Office of the Republic initiated 14 criminal cases within 11 months of 2013 according to the para. 3 (with the use of physical violence or threat of violence) Part 2 (the same offense committed) of the Article 305 (committing of actions by an official that are clearly beyond his powers and that led to violation of the rights and legitimate interests of persons, in the absence of elements of crime under Article 305-1 of the Criminal Code, or legal persons or legally protected interests of society or the state).

105. The investigators of the Prosecutor’s Office of the Republic and the National Security State Committee initiated criminal proceedings against the police officers who committed an offense through the abuse of official positions, exceeding of official authorities, under para. 3, Part 2 of the Articles 305 and 305-1 of the Criminal Code of the Kyrgyz Republic in 2012 and within 11 months of 2013.

106. The National Security State Committee initiated 2 criminal cases within 11 months of 2013 on the grounds of crime under para.3, Part 2 of the Article 305 and additional Articles were charged on the given criminal cases: para. 4 of the Article 305-1 of the Criminal Code of the Kyrgyz Republic.

107. The National preventive mechanism, the National Center for the Prevention of Torture and Other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment was established in June 2012 in accordance with the obligations under the Optional Protocol to the Convention against Torture and Other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment. In accordance with the Law, the National Center is an independent body managed by the Coordination Council, whose members are Ombudsman, 2 deputies and eight human rights defenders, as well as the Director of the National Center to be all approved by the Coordination Council. The National Center has the right to an unlimited access to places of detention without prior notice, provides recommendations for actions and improvements, and specific public authorities are obliged to consider these recommendations. National Center maintains direct contacts, exchanges of information on matters relating to methods and strategies for the prevention of torture and ill-treatment with the Subcommittee on Prevention of Torture and Other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment, including, if necessary, confidentially.

108. Another important document contributing in practice to reduction of torture by law enforcement agencies is the Memorandum of Cooperation in the field of protection of human rights and freedoms reached between the Ombudsman, the General Prosecutor’s Office, Ministry of Internal Affairs, Ministry of Health, Ministry of Justice, State Service of Execution of Punishments, OSCE and 12 public associations aimed at protecting human rights and freedoms which has been in effect since 2012. In accordance with the Memorandum, its members have the right to hold joint visits to places of detention across the country, without prior notice, in order to identify problems with human rights violations in these institutions, in particular the practice of torture.

109. It is also necessary to mention the work of the Public Supervisory Boards under all ministries and departments of the Kyrgyz Republic, which bring together human rights activists and other civil and academic representatives. These Boards are an effective platform for dialogue between the state and society, for the exchange of information on violations of human rights and freedoms, the development of plans for joint activities to monitor the implementation of the rights of citizens, etc.

110. A Public Supervisory Board was established under the State Service for the Execution of Punishments under the Government of the Kyrgyz in 2011, which consists of 14 members who are representatives of non-governmental organizations. The Public Supervisory Board regularly monitors adherence to the rights of convicts, as well as their conditions of detention.
111. A number of measures are being taken in terms of improving the conditions of detention and identifying cases of torture in detention centers of the State Service for the Execution of Punishments. One of the examples is the introduction of standard forms of medical examination at the placement of persons in temporary detention facilities, detention centers, penal colonies.

112. Currently, the process of approval of the very important document, the Action Plan on the implementation of the recommendations drawn by Mr Juan Mendez, the UN Special Rapporteur, following his visit to Kyrgyzstan in December 2011 is taking place.

113. Legislation of the Kyrgyz Republic provides for civil and criminal liability for violence and child abuse.

114. Main activities, actions for the protection of children living in difficult situations have been included in the Development Strategy of Social Protection of the Kyrgyz Republic for 2012-2014 and the plan of the main activities of the Ministry of Social Development of the Kyrgyz Republic for 2013-2014.

115. The Ministry and its territorial divisions carry out activities to identify the disadvantaged, dysfunctional families, children in difficult life situations, ill-treated children, children not attending schools, as well as visits to prevent crime among underaged on a regular basis in accordance with the work plan for the purpose of implementing the given Strategy.

116. In identifying the families and children subjected to violence, specialists of territorial units of the Ministry together with the specialists of aiyl okmotu in the villages or representatives of the local government in the cities develop plans of individual works with families and/or an individual plan for child protection, and gets information on the following issues within 10 calendar days:

- Does this child need protection services?
- Does this child need rehabilitation programs?
- Is it possible to keep the child in the family or there is a need to place him out of the family?
- Does the child need committeeship, adoption or placement in the foster home?

117. In general, 1219 individual plans for child protection were developed by the end of the third quarter 2013 and 1009 individual plans for child protection were approved by the Child Committee. The number of developed plans of individual works with families was 3931 and 2601 were approved by the Child Committee. 1297 plans of individual works with families were implemented and released from control. The implementation of the remaining plans of individual work with the family is in progress.

118. In exceptional cases, where there is a direct threat to life and health of the child (physical or psychological violence, abuse or exploitation and other cases) the territorial division of the authorized state body for the protection of children is taking urgent measures to protect the rights of the child and decisions to place the child outside the family.

119. The territorial division of the Ministry informs the prosecutor and the Child Committee in writing on urgent actions taken within a day and not later than three days develops a plan to provide protection for the child, sends the results to the Child Committee and later to the court.

120. The Ministry developed the Provisional Regulations on the procedure for identifying and social support for children and families in difficult situations, which was approved by order No. 118 of the Ministry of Social Development of the Kyrgyz Republic dated September 26, 2013. The Provisional Regulations on the procedure for identifying and providing social support for children and families in difficult situations were introduced in the pilot areas of the country on November 1, 2013.

121. Rehabilitation institutions, such as the Center for Street Children Rehabilitation, Center for Social Adaptation of Children, Center for assistance to children, victims of violence, and others operate in the system of the Ministry in order to provide social, legal and psychological support.

151. Kyrgyz military courts administer justice in the Armed Forces of the Kyrgyz Republic, in bodies and structures in which the legislation of the Kyrgyz Republic provides for military service, as well as handle cases related to their jurisdiction by the procedural law.

152. In accordance with Article 240 of the Code of Criminal Procedure:
- Military courts of garrisons have jurisdiction over criminal cases of all crimes committed by military personnel, and called on the charges liable for military service.
- In charge of one person or group of persons in several crimes, even if a single case falls within the jurisdiction of a military court, the case of all crimes will be considered by the military court.
- When charging a group of persons in having committed one or more offenses, if the case against at least one of these persons falls within the jurisdiction of a military court, and in the other under the district (city) court, the case against all the accused is considered by a military court.

153. In accordance with Article 26 of Code of Civil Procedure of the Kyrgyz Republic, the garrison military court considers civil cases to protect the violated and (or) the disputed rights, freedoms and lawful interests of individuals having the military status in accordance with the legislation of the Kyrgyz Republic, as well as bound to military service from the action (inaction) of the military administration, military officials and their decisions.
154. Constitution of the Kyrgyz Republic guarantees freedom of conscience and religion to every citizen. Everyone has the right to profess, individually or jointly with others, any religion or no religion. Everyone has the right to freely choose and to have religious or other beliefs. Nobody can be forced to express their religious or other beliefs or to deny them.

155. The Law of the Kyrgyz Republic “On Freedom of Conscience and Religious Organizations in the Kyrgyz Republic” was adopted on December 31, 2008, and the current Constitution adopted on June 27, 2010. Nevertheless, the provisions of relevant constitutional norms guarantee everyone the right to freedom of religion and atheistic beliefs (para. 1 Article 4).

156. 304 religious organizations have been registered after the adoption of the Law “On Freedom of Conscience and Religious Organizations in the Kyrgyz Republic”.

157. Currently, the development of the draft Law on amendments to the Law “On Freedom of Conscience and Religious Organizations in the Kyrgyz Republic” was initiated. It is in particular, the revision of the rules concerning the quantitative threshold of the initiators in the establishment of a religious organization, removal of temporary regulations limiting foreign missionaries stay in the Kyrgyz Republic, etc. This work will be carried out in the framework of the Plan of lawmaking activities of the Government in 2014.

158. The Supreme Court of the Kyrgyz Republic and local courts sent requests to examine the constitutionality of paragraphs 1, 4, 7 of the Article 32, paragraph 1 of Article 35 and paragraph 1 of Article 36 of the Law of the Kyrgyz Republic “On universal conscription of citizens of the Kyrgyz Republic, on the military and alternative service” in constitutional Chamber of the Supreme Court of the Kyrgyz Republic.

159. The above questions have been considered by the Constitutional Chamber of the Supreme Court of the Kyrgyz Republic on November 19, 2013: the first paragraph of Part 4, Part 7, Article 32, Part 1, Article 35 of the Law of the Kyrgyz Republic “On universal conscription of citizens of the Kyrgyz Republic, on the military and alternative service” are in conflict with the Constitution of the Kyrgyz Republic. The Ministry of Defense currently submitted the draft Law “On Amendments to the Law of KR “On universal conscription of citizens of the Kyrgyz Republic, on the military and alternative service” to the Government of the Kyrgyz Republic for consideration.

160. The Constitution of KR as of 2010 set new standards in terms of guarantees of certain rights and freedoms, including the right to freedom of peaceful assembly. Thus, the Law of the Kyrgyz Republic “On peaceful gatherings” No. 64 dated May 23, 2012 regulates the social relations associated with the implementation of the right of everyone to peaceful assembly and guarantees the right to freedom of peaceful assembly, recognizing a citizen of the Kyrgyz Republic, a foreign citizen or stateless person as a participant of the gatherings, and ensured responsibility of the authorities in accordance with their competence.

161. The right to freedom of peaceful assembly can not be limited, except as required by law in order to ensure public safety, public order, public health or the protection of citizens’ rights and freedoms of others.

162. Presidential Decree No. 74 as of April 10, 2013 approved the Concept of strengthening the unity of the people and inter-ethnic relations in the Kyrgyz Republic for the period of 2013-2017 years, which focuses on early warning and prevention of ethnic conflicts and strengthening the unity of the people of the country for building of civic identity. The first chapter of the concept: state-legal regulation of inter-ethnic relations in paragraph 1.14 clearly sets the objectives to increase the ethnic minority representation in the staffing of the state and municipal law enforcement and judicial authorities of the Kyrgyz Republic. In this direction, Priority Action Plan on the implementation of the Concept of strengthening the unity of the people and inter-ethnic relations in the Kyrgyz Republic for the period 2013-2017 adopted by the Order No. 330-p of the Government of the Kyrgyz Republic as of October 30, 2013 will be implemented with appropriate funding provided from the state budget.
