Strategic Plan Myanmar 2021-2023

Strategic Plan Myanmar

Strategic Plan 2021-2023 specifically focusing on Myanmar was developed:

- In line with CCPR's overall strategic plan 2019-2023
- To streamline and strategise CCPR's activity in Myanmar
- By setting concrete objectives for Myanmar and analysing national context
- With more targeted strategies and tactics

Strategic Objectives

Stakeholder analysis

Strategic Objective 1

Strengthen and assist efforts of national civil society in Myanmar to utilise different UN HR mechanisms for the protection of civil and political rights

Target actors

- National civil society actors and Human Rights Defenders (HRDs) in Myanmar who are working on the protection of civil and political rights

Tactics

- Increase capacity of national civil society to utilise the review of Myanmar by the Committee on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights (CESCR), and other UN HR bodies when review is scheduled (Treaty Bodies and UPR), for protection of civil and political rights including ICCPR ratification

Key activities

- Train national civil society for effective reporting to the CESCR and other Treaty bodies, if review is scheduled
- Facilitate direct interaction between national civil society and the CESCR in Geneva
- Assist joint follow-up activities of national civil society after CESCR and UPR reviews for civil and political rights and ICCPR ratification

Key performance indicators

- 50 national CSO and HRD representatives are trained at national level
- 1 joint CSO report is submitted to the CESCR
- Participation of 5 national CSO / HRD representatives in CESCR and UPR reviews in Geneva facilitated
- 1 joint follow-up action plan developed

Strategic Objective 2

Assist and enhance efforts of national stakeholders for the earliest ratification of ICCPR by Myanmar

Target actors

- National civil society actors and HRDs
- (new) Government and relevant Ministries, especially Ministry of Foreign Affairs
- Union MPs (NLD and non-NLD)

Tactics

- Assist advocacy work of ICCPR Action Group (ICCPR AG), a coalition of national civil society organisations
- Strengthen collaboration with MoFA and enhance its initiative for ICCPR ratification
- Raise awareness and deepen understanding of MPs about ICCPR and the benefits of its ratification for Myanmar

Key activities

- Organisation of joint campaign and awareness raising events with ICCPR AG, especially targeting general public and (new) MPs
- Organisation of focused / advanced workshops with MoFA to enhance process for ICCPR ratification with the new government
- Organisation of multi-stakeholder meetings

Key performance indicators

- 1 joint campaign and 2 awareness raising events with ICCPR AG
- 2 multi-stakeholder meetings, involving at least 3 different stakeholders
